

Alumni Feedback Report (2024-2025)

Introduction:

The Govt. PG College for Women, Rohtak has collected responses from the alumni regarding the institution's facilities, such as infrastructural facilities, academic resources, and services provided during the three-year undergraduate program and two-year postgraduate program. This activity was performed through the alumni committee of the institution to improve the learning environment by implementing best practices in the institution, benefiting the student community. Feedback was collected from alumni who graduated from the institution before 2024. However, the respondents graduated from the curriculum that was designed by the affiliated university, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak. The objective of this report, which analyzes alumni feedback, is to comprehend the institution's strengths and weaknesses and make necessary changes based on the feedback.

Methodology:

The feedback committee collected the data through online mode. The feedback form was distributed to the alumni of the institution. The survey included questions related to the quality of education, performance of the faculty, infrastructure, extracurricular activities, career opportunities and overall satisfaction with the institution. Syllabus should be changed according to present need

Assessment system for students is not worthy because if a student cover all point related to assessment then teacher should not give assessment mark according to it .
